

Florida Back to Work: Self-Evaluation– Are you eligible?

In order to be eligible for a Florida Back to Work job you MUST be receiving Cash Assistance (TANF) or meet ALL of the following criteria. Answer the below questions to see if you are eligible.

1. Are you receiving Cash Assistance (TANF)?

(If you answered YES you do not need to answer the below questions; you are eligible for the Florida Back to Work program. If you answered NO, please answer the below questions.)

2. Are you a United States Citizen or qualified non-citizen and a legal resident of the State of Florida?

YES: Continue to Question 3 NO: You are NOT eligible

3. Are you a full time custodial parent or caretaker of an unmarried dependent child under age 18, or a pregnant woman?

YES: Continue to Question 4 NO: You are NOT eligible

4. Do you have an income at or below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) based on your income for the last 30 days?

YES: You are eligible NO: You are NOT eligible

Income depending on your family size must not exceed the below chart FPL chart:

Persons in family maximum income for the last 30 days:

1	$1,780.27
2	$2,395.07
3	$3,009.86
4	$3,624.66
5	$4,239.45

All families with more than 5 persons, add $614.79 for each additional person

If you answered YES to question #1 or YES to questions #2-4 than you are most likely eligible for Florida Back to Work positions. We will need to set up an intake appointment to get the corresponding documentation from you, including an interview-ready resume to forward to the employers.

If you have questions or are eligible and would like to set up an appointment contact our office that is most convenient for you:
